

5

1 Computer words

- a) How many computer words do you know? Write them down. You've got five minutes.
- b) Now work with a partner and compare your lists. Who has got more words?

2 Working with a computer

- a) What can you do with a computer? Match the pictures with the phrases.

wordbank
computers and technology I write emails • play computer games • make a presentation • search for information • download music • chat with friends • order tickets • prepare for school

MORE
M1-M4
computer games

- b) Think of six questions you want to ask a partner about computers. Write them down. Then talk to a partner and ask and answer questions.

workbook
1, 2

Have you got a computer at home/ at school/at ... ?

Yes, I've got a computer at ...

How often do you use the computer?

I use it very often/ every day/...

What do you use the computer for?

I use the computer when I have to/ want to ...

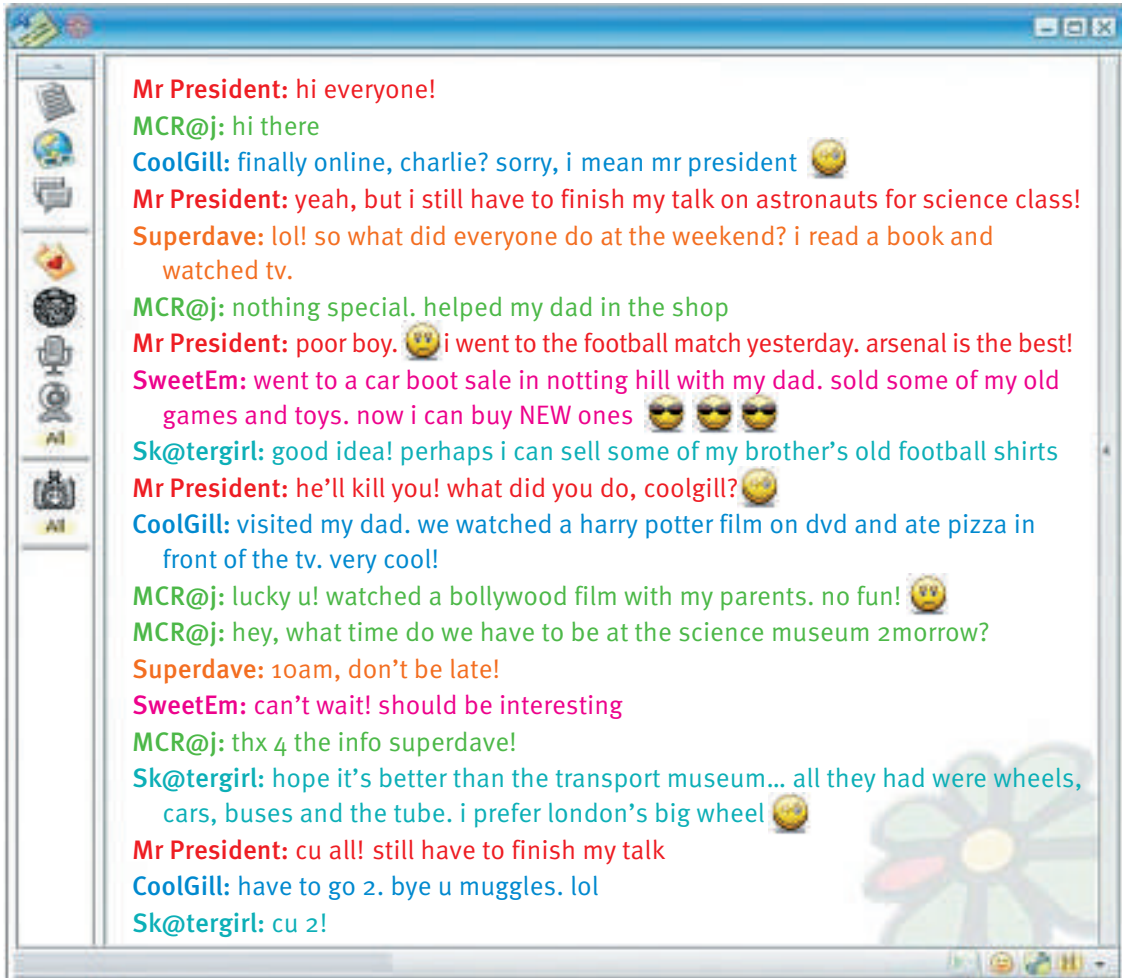

I write ... /play ... / download ...

I don't use it very often.

LIF
17R, 18R

3 Are you online?

a) Read this chat and find out who's who.

tip
 lol = laughing out loud (something is funny)

tip
 u = you r = are
 2 = to/too
 4 = for

b) Read the chat again. In which order do the friends chat about these things?

- car boot sale • Harry Potter • Science Museum • Mr Khan's shop • football match

c) Who did what at the weekend? Find out from the chat.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 1 ... helped his father in the shop. | 4 ... watched a Harry Potter film. |
| 2 ... watched a football match. | 5 ... read a book. |
| 3 ... went to a car boot sale. | 6 ... didn't say anything about the weekend. |

workbook
 3, 4

4 YOUR text message

a) Read the two text messages. Find out what they mean.

b) Now write an English text message that you could send to a friend.

tip
 Say the letters or the numbers out loud to get their meaning.